B1X Hook-up

EN Step 1: Hook-Up

Singer-songwriter hookup with a smartphone streaming audio over Bluetooth.

Smartphone streaming audio over Bluetooth with Behringer wireless microphones.

B1X Controls

EN Step 2: Controls

1. LCD SCREEN - displays the current DSP module and parameter settings.
2. DISPLAY MENU BUTTONS - use with the display to select various menu pages.
3. ENCODER KNOB - controls volume when the default DSP menu is active. Press the encoder knob to access DSP sub-menus and parameters. When the sub-menus are active, rotate the knob to change parameters.
4. WIRELESS SYSTEM LEDs - indicate wireless microphone signal input.
5. WIRELESS SYSTEM USB - input accepts only the Behringer wireless microphone receiver. This port can also be used to charge USB devices including cell phones.
NOTE: The wireless USB input works in parallel with the INPUT A/B analog inputs, which means the wireless microphone signal can be heard at the same time as audio coming in through the INPUT A/B connections. We recommend you unplug the INPUT A/B connections to hear the wireless microphone signal alone.
6. INPUT - 3.5 mm stereo input jack.
7. INPUT A/B - combination jacks accept input signals over XLR balanced, 1/4" TRS balanced, or 1/4" TS unbalanced connectors.
8. MIX OUTPUT - jack sends a combined signal from all inputs (INPUT A/B jacks, wireless microphone, and Bluetooth) out over a balanced XLR connection.
9. POWER SOURCE - jack accepts the included IEC power cord. Only use the supplied power cord.
10. AC/POWER - switch turns the unit off and on. The B1X will run on AC power if the power cord is connected to a live AC power source, or it will run on internal battery power.

B1X Getting started

EN Step 3: Getting started

- 1 Connect the B1X to a power outlet by using the included IEC power cord. This will also charge up the internal battery.
- 2 Connect all analog microphone and/or instrument cables to their respective input jacks. Make sure all outboard audio gear is switched off for now.
- 3 Power up the B1X by pressing the AC/POWER switch to the "ON" position. The startup screen will appear on the LCD display. If the AC power cord is not connected, the B1X will run on internal battery power.

- 4 Reduce the volume by rotating the ENCODER KNOB counter-clockwise until the VOLUME setting shows "MUTE" on the LCD screen.

- 5 Mute all audio inputs by going to the GAIN screen and reducing the gain for each input with the ENCODER KNOB until each input displays the "Mute" setting.

- 6 If you are using Behringer wireless microphones, plug the wireless dongle into the WIRELESS SYSTEM USB input. The WIRELESS SYSTEM LEDs will light up when the wireless microphones become active.

- 7 Power up any outboard audio gear connected to the B1X.
- 8 Raise the volume back up to a low-to-medium setting in the VOLUME screen to begin setting input levels.

- 9 Set microphone levels by going back to the INPUT screen. Speak or sing into each microphone while raising each mic's respective gain level (A or B) with the ENCODER KNOB until you find a comfortable gain level that does not distort the audio signal. The level indicator bar will help to find a suitable input gain. Please avoid clipping the input signal.

- 10 If you intend to stream Bluetooth audio, go to the Bluetooth Streaming section of this Quick Start Guide and follow the setup instructions.

- 11 Set Bluetooth levels by going to the GAIN screen and raising/lowering the BT gain setting until you find comfortable level settings. Do not forget to turn on the volume on the sending BT device.

- 12 Go to the MODE screen and choose an equalization preset that suits your needs (Music, Live, Speech or Club).

- 13 Go to the EQ screen and adjust the Bass, Mid and Treble settings if you wish to make your own adjustments.

- 14 Make final volume adjustments by going to the VOLUME screen and rotating the ENCODER KNOB until you find the desired final volume level.

- 15 The POSIT. Menu allows you to select the speaker position from Stand, Stand-Wall, Stand-Corner, Floor, Floor-wall, and Floor-Corner.

- 16 Use the SETUP Menu to rename the speaker. Rotate and press the ENCODER KNOB to select NAME, rotate it to select the required letters, and press to select each letter. Select the 'return' (just before A) to finish.

- 17 Use the SETUP Menu to LOCK the speaker settings with a password, to prevent any changes being made after the speaker has been set up. Rotate and press the ENCODER KNOB to select LOCK, rotate it to select the letters, and press to select each letter. Select the 'return' (just before A) to finish.

Bluetooth Connection

EN

To stream audio from a Bluetooth-enabled device, you will need at least one B1X speaker and an iPad*/iPhone/Android*/Windows* device with basic Bluetooth connectivity. With a streaming-only Bluetooth connection, all related B1X DSP functions must still be controlled directly from the B1X rear panel via the rotary encoder.

For Apple* iOS or Android devices, you can also download our dedicated Behringer Show Mix app from the App Store. The app allows you to fully control a single or multiple B1X speakers, including all DSP functions, remotely from your iOS or Android device (see “Show Mix App Control” on the next pages for more information).

*iPad and Apple are trademarks of Apple Inc. Android is a trademark of Google Inc. Windows is either a registered trademark or trademark of Microsoft Corporation in the United States and/or other countries.

Bluetooth Streaming

To stream Bluetooth audio with any Bluetooth device (iPad/iPhone/Android/Windows, etc.):

Single Speaker Operation

1. Enable Bluetooth on your remote device.
2. Switch on your B1X speaker and minimize the volume.
3. Select “Pair device” from the B1X speaker’s Bluetooth menu.

4. Check that your remote device is searching for a connection.
5. Once your device detects the B1X speaker, select the B1X speaker from your remote device’s menu (e.g., “Behringer B1X”).
6. Wait until the remote device shows an active connection, and then check the speaker’s Bluetooth menu, which should display the name of the remote device (e.g., “Paul iPad”).

7. Bluetooth music can now be streamed to your B1X speaker. The stereo signal will automatically mix down to mono.
8. The B1X speaker will display the Bluetooth indicator on the main, top-level DSP screen. It flashes on an off during Pairing.

Two Speaker Operation

1. Complete the steps above to connect the first speaker to Bluetooth audio.
2. Use the BT “Link Speaker” menu on the first speaker to select Stereo Master.

3. Switch on the second speaker, and use its BT “Link Speaker” menu to select Stereo Slave.

4. Wait for the speakers to link.
5. Once the linking process is complete, the MASTER speaker will be the main Bluetooth connection to your device. Any SLAVE speakers will receive the Bluetooth audio stream from the MASTER speaker.
6. The MASTER and SLAVE connection will be indicated by a small M or an S on the main display screens.

7. As the Bluetooth audio stream received by all speakers is stereo, use the MIXER menu of each speaker to adjust the left and right BT levels. For example, if you want your MASTER speaker to play the Left audio from Bluetooth, you can MUTE the BT Right channel. If you want a SLAVE to be a Right channel, MUTE the BT Left channel using that speaker's MIXER menu.

Party Operation

Multiple B1X speakers can be linked in Party Mode, up to a maximum of 8 speakers.

1. Complete the steps above to connect the first speaker to Bluetooth audio.
2. Use the BT “Link Speaker” menu on the first speaker to select Party Slave.

3. Switch on the next speaker, and use its BT “Link Speaker” menu to select Party Master.

4. Wait for the speakers to link.
5. Once the linking process is complete, the Party MASTER speaker will be the main Bluetooth connection to your device. Any Party SLAVE speakers will receive the Bluetooth audio stream from the Party MASTER speaker.
6. The MASTER and SLAVE connection will be indicated by a small M or an S on the main display screens. Another icon appears if the B1X is controlled by the Show Mix App.

7. As the Bluetooth audio stream received by all speakers is stereo, use the MIXER menu of each speaker to adjust the left and right BT levels. For example, if you want your MASTER speaker to play the Left audio from Bluetooth, you can MUTE the BT Right channel. If you want a SLAVE to be a Right channel, MUTE the BT Left channel using that speaker's MIXER menu.
